About my T-shirt:

(Please tick what applies to your T-shirt)

- My T-shirt is a Clean Cloth Campaign shirt, ensuring socially fair wages for those making the shirt.
- My T-shirt is made of organically grown cotton.
- My T-shirt is free of toxic substances and fully complies with the tests for harmful substances according to Oeko-Tex Standard 100 for textile products (www.oekotex.com).
- For the production of my T-shirt no substances have been used that are ecologically harmful or harmful to health. In addition, there are strict social criteria to guarantee fair working conditions for all people participating in the production (www.naturtextil.com).
- I don't know anything about the environmental or social performance of the T-shirt I am sending in, but I will certainly consider these issues when I make my next purchase .

My shirt story:

What makes the T-shirt special for you? Did you climb Kilimanjaro in it? Did you wear it on your first overseas trip? Does it remind you of a time in your life that you will never ever forget? Please write a few lines about your shirt:

Thank you.

Terms of Use: We reserve the right to choose which shirts shall be used as Re-Shirts. Parties who donate shirts forfeit all rights of publication and further use of the shirts they donate. We only accept undamaged shirts of sufficient quality. We refuse to accept offensive statements or images on donated t-shirts. Rejected shirts will be forwarded to non-profit organisations at our cost without further notification.
